This Kind of Life is the long awaited follow-up to The Mary Dream's critically acclaimed full-length debut Beautiful World. On This Kind of Life, The Mary Dream takes their signature vibey sound to a deeper level. Staying true to their DIY roots, the entire record was written, recorded and produced by The Mary Dream alone. This Kind of Life delivers 11 ultra vibey songs that pop, rock and chill - this time with a fuller, richer sound than anything The Mary Dream has delivered before. Instead of filling out the sound exclusively with guitars, multi-instrumentalist Blake Ryan Dayton added bitter-sweet piano riffs, lush ambient synth and intricate drum programming - all this combined with Elise Bellew's distinctive ethereal vocals to create the unique sound that The Mary Dream has become known for.

This Kind of Life was mixed by 5-time grammy winner F. Reid Shippen (Matt Kearney, India Arie, etc) and mastered by the legendary Greg Calbi (John Mayer, Norah Jones, etc). Guest musicians include Justin Cary (Sixpence None The Richer), Steve Bowman (Counting Crows, Luce), Steve Brewster (Jewel, Faith Hill), Mark Hill (Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood), and David Henry (Butterfly Boucher, Vienna Teng).

More About The Mary Dream

Since their fated meeting through a classified ad in a San Francisco newspaper, singer/songwriter Elise Bellew and songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Blake Ryan Dayton have been working meticulously to create their own unique sound and style of vibey alternative pop/rock. From a profound and moving dream Elise had about the Virgin Mary comes the name The Mary Dream. Elise's distinctive ethereal vocals and impactful lyrics join together with Blake's lush orchestrations and unique guitar layerings to create some of the most moving, yet melodic alternative pop/rock emerging today.

To date, The Mary Dream are best known for their songs "Beautiful World", "Burning Bridges" (from MTV's Real World D.C.), "Stay" (from MTV's Real World Hollywood), "More" (from MTV's Real World Denver), and "How You Love Me" (from ABC's All My Children). Due to its success on animoto.com, the title track from their debut full-length album "Beautiful World" is continually spreading through viral videos, and is steadily becoming an optimistic and sentimental pop anthem around the world.

"The latest release from the Nashville duo The Mary Dream is not your average recording. "This Kind of Life" gracefully paints a new picture with each tone, strum and ring. Vocalist Elise Bellew and instrumentalist Blake Ryan Dayton have taken a mixture of truth, emotion and tone to another level. From artists who are truly independent, this release contains all the quality, style and brilliance of a classic that many will try and emulate in the future."
